

I Am Who God Says I Am

The Bible says there is power in our mouths. With our tongue, we can declare life or death over ourselves. Every day, speak the Word of God over you. Remember, God's word never comes back void.

- ❖ I am a child of God and as His child, I am an heir of Christ (John 1:12; Romans 8:17).
- ❖ I am complete in Christ. All my needs will be taken care of by God. I do not need to worry. God will supply all my needs for me (Colossians 2:9-10; Matthew 6:25; Philippians 4:19).
- ❖ Though I have sinned and done wrong, I am redeemed. God has forgiven me. All things from my past are no longer; I am a new person in Christ (2 Corinthians 2:17; Romans 3:24).
- ❖ I am a saint and a member of Christ's body (1 Corinthians 12:27; Ephesians 1:1).
- ❖ I have escaped the corruption that is present in this world because I am participating in God's divine nature (2 Peter 1:4).
- ❖ I am a child of light, holy, and dearly loved by God (Colossians 3:12; 1 Thessalonians 5:5).
- ❖ I am more than a conqueror, a world overcomer, and I can do all things through Christ who gives me strength. With God, all things are possible and the work God began in me, will be completed (Romans 8:37; Philippians 4:13; Matthew 19:26; Philippians 1:6).
- ❖ I will commit my plans to God and they will be established and succeeded (Proverbs 16:3).
- ❖ The gift God has given me will make room for me and place me before the great (Proverbs 18:16).
- ❖ My current struggles are preparing me for a greater glory (2 Corinthians 4:17).
